Requirements for Home-Based Online Examination

1. Requirements for Candidates' PC Equipment

| Device Name	Configuration Requirements
CPU	Main frequency above 1GHz
Memory	Minimum requirement: 2GB, recommended 4GB or above
Hard Drive	10GB or more of free space, do not use diskless workstations
Display Resolution	1024*768 and above
Camera	The computer comes with a built-in camera or an external USB camera, and camera's pixel resolution must be at least 2 million for on-site recording
Headphone Configuration	Equipped with USB or 3.5 jack broadcasting earphones for playing test's audio content
Operating System	Windows 7 32-bit/64 bit, Windows 10 32-bit/64 bit flag ship installation disk and above
System Environment	The system should be clean, with no additional software (it is recommended not to install antivirus software), and the firewall(including the built-in firewall of the operating system) should be off. If the antivirus software blocks the installation of the exam software, select "Allow to install".
Network Card	One 100M duplex network card
Network Requirements	The broadband network should be connected to the Internet, and the network speed has to be not less than 10Mbp. Please ensure the smooth internet connection

2. Requirements for Mobile Devices

Device Name	Configuration Requirements
Brand and Model	IPhone or iPad with iOS 15 or above Mobile devices with Android version 10 or above must have Chrome browser installed
Network Requirements	Configure WiFi or operator's 4G/5G network Connect to the Internet, and keep the network link stable during the exam
Camera	Camera's pixels resolution must be above 2 million for on-site recording
Mobile Phone Holder'	Install mobile devices in appropriate locations for on-site recording during the exam process
Other Requirements	1. The device's battery level should be above 80%. It is recommended to connect it to a power source for use 2. The device has the ability to scan QR codes for opening exam specific QR codes

3. Overall Examination Environment Requirements:

For home-based examinations, prepare an independent and quiet space environment for the examination, ensuring that there are no other individuals present and no examination-related materials or items; no irrelevant books, materials, etc., are allowed in the space.

The suggested layout for specific equipment placement is as follows:

During the examination, please maintain a stable and smooth network connection, keep the camera and microphone of your computer or tablet open for real-time monitoring by invigilators, strictly abide by the examination rules, and refrain from any cheating behavior.